The year is 1941. The war in Europe is in its 2nd year. Nazi Germany seems unstoppable. In all of western Europe, only Spain, Portugal and Sweden remain as neutral nations. In the west, only Great Britain, with never more than 41 divisions, remains at war to oppose Hitler. By June of 1941, Hitler’s strategy of going after one nation at a time has proven itself repeatedly. In the first six months of that year, the strategy has won him Greece, Slovakia, Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria. In North Africa, British gains in Libya have been lost and the British have been pushed back to Egypt following Rommel’s arrival in Algeria.

In March, intelligence led Churchill and a few others to suspect that Germany’s next prize would be the Soviet Union. Stalin had, with cool detachment, stood by and watched as one by one the European nations fell. Instead of being alarmed that the buffer these nations represented was collapsing, he felt that the more aid he gave to Germany, the more the Soviets stood to gain when Great Britain finally surrendered, and the war was over. Military supplies and raw materials had been shipped by trains and trucks from Russia to Germany since the fall of Poland in 1939. In early June of 1941, the Soviets were using express trains to rush more and more military aid to Germany. Meanwhile, British attempts to warn Stalin through diplomatic channels had been ignored. Stalin viewed them as words of desperation from a pitiful nation soon to be conquered. Unknown to him, more than 180 German divisions, forming three main army groups, were poised to cross the frontier into the U.S.S.R. Operation Barbarossa was about to begin with more than 4.5 million troops massed on its border.

Knowing the invasion was imminent, Churchill and a few British and American advisors, traveled to Chequers for a weekend strategy session. Churchill stated to the assembled group that once the Soviets were invaded, Great Britain would immediately respond with an invitation to render any and all aid it could. Late that evening, June 21st, and though none knew it, in the final hours before the June 22nd predawn invasion began, Churchill’s personal aid walks with him across the croquet lawn of the estate and questions the Prime Minister’s judgement by asking “Churchill, … the arch anti-Communist, that this was bowing down in the House of Rimmon. Mr. Churchill replaid, “Not at all. I have only one purpose, the destruction of Hitler, and my life is much simplified thereby. If Hitler invaded Hell I would make at least a favorable reference to the Devil in the House of Commons.” (Churchill, The Grand Alliance).

You will, of course, recognize Sir John Colville’s reference to Naaman’s plea for pardon from Elisha concerning the House of Rimmon (2 Kings 5:15-19). Hopefully, you will also appreciate Churchill’s perspective. For him, the enemy was Hitler. Anyone whom Hitler oppressed was a potential ally. Hitler’s strategy of conquest depended on mistrust between nations and it only failed when those nations united against him.

Our enemy is the devil (1 Peter 5:8). Only in the abstract does one find any reference at all to Christians being enemies (James 4:4 - where it is shown that friendship with the world makes one an enemy of God). There are enemies of the Cross (Philip 3:18), but theirs is not the walk of a Christian. In the New Testament, enemies are almost always the identified as those opposed to God and to His Son. Satan gains the upper hand when brethren fight and quarrel (and we’ve all done that). The church is never weak because outside forces attack it. It is only weak when the family quarrels with one another.

Scripture exposes for our benefit the true character and motivation of our common adversary. Our enemy plots and schemes in order to divide us (1 Corinthians 1:10-13). Scripture also instructs us to be forbearing, forgiving, tender hearted, and loving toward one another. After all, there is a world war going on at this very hour (Ephesians 6:12). At any given moment, the enemies’ forces mass on the border ready for all out invasion. We fight together, united by His Spirit in the bond of peace – one in body, spirit, hope, faith, baptism and Father (Ephesians 4:1-6). Victory is assured, but we must always know who the enemy is. — DC Brown

ANNOUNCEMENTS/PRAYER:

Wednesday Bible Study: 10:30 AM

Evening Lesson: 10:00 PM

Closing Prayer: Bubba Burnett

SUNDAY ADULT BIBLE CLASSES

- Auditorium: Romans - Lonnie Ritchie
- Annex Classroom: Respectable Sins - David Singletary
- Annex Meeting Rm: Young Adults - Scott Carpenter
- Fellowship: Hebrews - DC Brown
- Library: New Christians - Morris Fridle

PASSWORD: fellowship

ENJOY THE WIFI

Network: MCCG Guest

WIFI

Network: MCCG Guest

Password: fellowship

WHERE YOU ARE FAMILY

MINISTERS

DC Brown
(281) 961-1501
dcbrown@magnoliachurchofchrist.com

Nick Schroeder
(936) 697-3449
nick@magnoliachurchofchrist.com

SHEPHERDS

Scott Carpenter
Joe Liles
Bill Rogers
David Singletary
Jim Smith

DEACONS

Bubba Burnett - Finances
Lee Coleman - Grounds & Technology
Steve Hasley - Helping Hands
Tony Langley - Mission
Gerry Luther - 1st Impressions & Bridges
Nathan Matthews - Worship

COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN

Richard Dean - Benevolence
Keith Ferguson - Buildings
Nick Schroeder - Fellowship

MORNING WORSHIP

Welcome: Scott Carpenter

Song Leader: Richard Dean

Prayer: Arthur Carpenter

Communion Prayers: Lance Leonard

Offering Prayer: Joe Liles

Scripture Reading: Steve Hasley

Message: DC Brown

Benediction: James Carpenter

EVENING WORSHIP

Announcements/Prayer: Scott Carpenter

Song Leader: Bill Rogers

Communion Prayers: Morris Fridle

Evening Lesson: DC Brown

Closing Prayer: Bubba Burnett

ASSEMBLY TIMES

Sunday Bible Class: 9:30 AM

Sunday Worship: 10:30 AM

Evening Worship: 5:00 PM

Wednesday Bible Study: 7:00 PM

SUNDAY ADULT BIBLE CLASSES

Auditorium: Romans - Lonnie Ritchie

Annex Classroom: Respectable Sins - David Singletary

Annex Meeting Room: Young Adults - Scott Carpenter

Fellowship: Hebrews - DC Brown

Library: New Christians - Morris Fridle

ENJOY THE WIFI

Network: MCCG Guest
Password: fellowship

www.magnoliachurchofchrist.com

823 S Magnolia Blvd, Magnolia, TX 77355
281.356.4466
magnolianews@comcast.net

APRIL 22, 2018

News Update

And the Enemy is …

The year is 1941. The war in Europe is in its 2nd year. Nazi Germany seems unstoppable. In all of western Europe, only Spain, Portugal and Sweden remain as neutral nations. In the west, only Great Britain, with never more than 41 divisions, remains at war to oppose Hitler. By June of 1941, Hitler’s strategy of going after one nation at a time has proven itself repeatedly. In the first six months of that year, the strategy has won him Greece, Slovakia, Romania, Hungary and Bulgaria. In North Africa, British gains in Libya have been lost and the British have been pushed back to Egypt following Rommel’s arrival in Algeria.

In March, intelligence led Churchill and a few others to suspect that Germany’s next prize would be the Soviet Union. Stalin had, with cool detachment, stood by and watched as one by one the European nations fell. Instead of being alarmed that the buffer these nations represented was collapsing, he felt that the more aid he gave to Germany, the more the Soviets stood to gain when Great Britain finally surrendered, and the war was over. Military supplies and raw materials had been shipped by trains and trucks from Russia to Germany since the fall of Poland in 1939. In early June of 1941, the Soviets were using express trains to rush more and more military aid to Germany. Meanwhile, British attempts to warn Stalin through diplomatic channels had been ignored. Stalin viewed them as words of desperation from a pitiful nation soon to be conquered. Unknown to him, more than 180 German divisions, forming three main army groups, were poised to cross the frontier into the U.S.S.R. Operation Barbarossa was about to begin with more than 4.5 million troops massed on its border.

Knowing the invasion was imminent, Churchill and a few British and American advisors, traveled to Chequers for a weekend strategy session. Churchill stated to the assembled group that once the Soviets were invaded, Great Britain would immediately respond with an invitation to render any and all aid it could. Late that evening, June 21st, and though none knew it, in the final hours before the June 22nd predawn invasion began, Churchill’s personal aid walks with him across the croquet lawn of the estate and questions the Prime Minister’s judgement by asking “Churchill, … the arch anti-Communist, that this was bowing down in the House of Rimmon. Mr. Churchill replaid, “Not at all. I have only one purpose, the destruction of Hitler, and my life is much simplified thereby. If Hitler invaded Hell I would make at least a favorable reference to the Devil in the House of Commons.” (Churchill, The Grand Alliance).

You will, of course, recognize Sir John Colville’s reference to Naaman’s plea for pardon from Elisha concerning the House of Rimmon (2 Kings 5:15-19). Hopefully, you will also appreciate Churchill’s perspective. For him, the enemy was Hitler. Anyone whom Hitler oppressed was a potential ally. Hitler’s strategy of conquest depended on mistrust between nations and it only failed when those nations united against him.

Our enemy is the devil (1 Peter 5:8). Only in the abstract does one find any reference at all to Christians being enemies (James 4:4 - where it is shown that friendship with the world makes one an enemy of God). There are enemies of the Cross (Philip 3:18), but theirs is not the walk of a Christian. In the New Testament, enemies are almost always the identified as those opposed to God and to His Son. Satan gains the upper hand when brethren fight and quarrel (and we’ve all done that). The church is never weak because outside forces attack it. It is only weak when the family quarrels with one another.

Scripture exposes for our benefit the true character and motivation of our common adversary. Our enemy plots and schemes in order to divide us (1 Corinthians 1:10-13). Scripture also instructs us to be forbearing, forgiving, tender hearted, and loving toward one another. After all, there is a world war going on at this very hour (Ephesians 6:12). At any given moment, the enemies’ forces mass on the border ready for all out invasion. We fight together, united by His Spirit in the bond of peace – one in body, spirit, hope, faith, baptism and Father (Ephesians 4:1-6). Victory is assured, but we must always know who the enemy is. — DC Brown
PRAYER REQUESTS

- Prayers for the friends and loved ones of our church family:
  - Melissa Roberds & family, Jimmy & Charlene Ware’s daughter in law (health issues)
  - Wanda Hammond, Jimmy Ware’s sister (cancer)
  - Ginger Astolfo, Jimmy Ware’s sister (health issues)
  - Bill Witcher, Charlene Ware’s friend (life struggle)
  - Cecilia Nunez, Charlene Ware’s friend (out patient neck surgery)
  - Arvil Smith, Glenn Woodson’s brother-in-law (pneumonia)
  - Linda Schuch, Frances Poehl’s niece (amputation/cancer)
  - Family of Brad Hale, Lance Leonard’s friend’s son (murdered)
  - Roger Brass, Maggie Polk’s brother (cancer)
  - Tommie Sue Wacbod, Ethel Mitchell’s friend (cancer)
  - George & Vanessa Botkin, former members (George—health issues)
  - Alan Schroeder, Nick’s father (blood pressure/kidney issues)
  - Joseph Brack, family friend of the Wares (Ghana Missionary)

- Thank you for the prayers, flowers and uplifting cards. This reminds me of my favorite quote: “A friend is God’s way of letting you know you are not alone.” Thanks to all my dear friends at Magnolia church of Christ — Silvia Woods

EVENTS & UPDATES

ELDER IN CHARGE FOR APRIL - JIM SMITH 214-402-5852

- Communication Session following evening assembly April 22.
- Monday Night for the Master at 6:30 PM on April 23 in the Fellowship Room
- Tuesday Night Prayer Meeting at 6:00 PM on April 24 in the Youth Room
- Men’s & Ladies Wednesday Morning Bible Class at 9:30 AM on April 25 in the Fellowship Room
- Teaching Rocket Seminar from 9:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. on April 28
- 5th Sunday Potluck Luncheon April 29 (No PM Assembly)

DAILY BIBLE READING

MONDAY 23 - Ps. 43-45, 49, 84-85, 87; TUESDAY 24 - Ps. 73, 77-78; WEDNESDAY 25 - 1 Chronicles 3-6; THURSDAY 26 - Psalms 81, 88, 92-93; FRIDAY 27 - 1 Chronicles 7-10; SATURDAY 28 - Psalms 102-104, 113

YOUTH UPDATE

UPCOMING EVENTS

- High School Senior Banquet - May 6
- Camp UFC - June 17-23
- Singing School - July 1-7
- Camp Registration is now open. Go to magnoliachurchofchrist.com, under the Connect menu find Youth. Register Today!

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS & EVENTS

Communication Meeting
Sunday, April 22nd following PM Assembly

Teaching Rocket Seminar
Saturday, April 28th from 9:00 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sign up Sheets are in the foyer.

5th Sunday Potluck Luncheon
Sunday, April 29th (no PM Assembly)

Infant Care Needed
The Home School that meets at the church building is needing someone for Tuesdays/Thursdays, 9:00 a.m. — 3:00 p.m. beginning August 21st.
(Lunch break provided) Pay is negotiable.
Please contact Emily (706-339-8315) if interested.

Save the Date
Seventh Annual Ladies’ Day @ Hempstead church of Christ,
Saturday, June 9th

CONTRIBUTION REPORT

APRIL 15, 2018

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS: 108
MORNING WORSHIP: 170
EVENING WORSHIP: 37
WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY: 50

CONTRIBUTION:
$8,443
BUDGET:
$8,020
OVER/(UNDER) BUDGET:
$6,749