

God caused

"the army of the Syrians to hear a sound of chariots and a sound of horses, so they said to one another, 'Behold the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites to come upon us.' Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight and left their tents...and fled for their life."

2 Kings 7:6-7